MATE O' MINE

We set out together, mate o' mine,
When youth was in its prime,
Life—the path that lay before us,
Life—the hill we had to climb.
We neither of us knew the road,
How long the journey, great the load;
Nor I how deep the debt I owed
To God for mate o' mine!

We set out together, mate o' mine;
We've wended road and hill;
Now it's homeward through the valley
We must wander at God's will.
We neither of us fear the gloom,
Love still shall light the path we roam;
Should you be lost returning Home,
I'll greet thee, mate o' mine!
